

Putting Your Faith into Action

*One-Day Training Event
Saturday, November 7, 2015*

Are you motivated by your faith to address issues in society like economic injustice, environmental concerns or human rights?

Do you want to drive change in your community but don't know where to start or how to tackle challenges?

This event may be for you:

A one-day training to motivate, empower, and equip you to put your faith into action!

Ecumenical & Interfaith Event

All faith leaders and faithful citizens welcome!

Sponsored by

Faith Forward Network North Dakota

Kristin Kumpf has spent the last 15 years working as an ecumenical and interfaith community organizer and trainer at the local, state, national, and international levels. She has trained thousands of leaders and planned strategy for social change with organizations such as AARP, American Heart Association, Interfaith Worker Justice, and the Illinois Coalition for Immigrant and Refugee Rights.

Currently serving as the Director of Organizing at the General Board of Church and Society of the global United Methodist Church in Washington, DC, Kristin trains and equips leaders and ecumenical partners in faith-based organizing skills and campaign strategy around issues such as Medicaid expansion in Tennessee and education reform in Nigeria.

Kristin will be joined by Special Guest Kjersten Nelson, Assistant Professor Political Science, North Dakota State University, in discussing the local context of North Dakota politics and government.

This training will cover the basics of community organizing, local leadership development, analyzing system and power dynamics, and other valuable skills for creating change!

To get the most out of this event, come with a friend or colleague with similar passions and goals for change!
